The advertisement features a blue textured background. On the left, a computer monitor displays the AccuMark 9.0 software interface, which shows a 2D pattern layout for a garment in blue and purple. To the right of the monitor, there is a 2x2 grid of four small images: the top-left shows a stack of colorful fabrics; the top-right shows a woman wearing a striped skirt; the bottom-left shows a woman in a purple and white dress; and the bottom-right shows a man in a grey suit and red tie.
